New Popular Busic for June.

The admirers of popular music have an ample range of subjects and styles to choose from in the Issues for June, published by Howley, Haviland & Co., of New York, almost every phase of musical and lyrical composition being represented.

Those sentimentally inclined will find much to piense them in "The Old Home I Loved Long Years Ago" and "The Old New England Farm of Other Days," both effective songs of their class, "Miss Amorinta Jackson's Promenade," "No Cake Comes Too High for Me" and "I Don't Want No Jonah Hangin' Round' are time examples of the ever present "coon song," and will probably achieve widespread popularity. Oratorio of "Israel in the Wilderness" to Be Sung.

lew Pieces by Norfolk Composers

We understand that the beautiful ratorio of "Israel in the Wilderness" will be given by local talent in Norfolk etime in October by the same singers who so delightfully rendered Gaul's Holy City" recently.

By special request Miss Ethel Neely will sing the "Holy City" at the Free-mason Street Baptist Church this evening. This will be Miss Neely's last public appearance for the summer. On Saturday Miss Neely will leave for the Mountains of Virginia. After remaining there for some time she will spend the rest of the summer in Massachusetts, returning to Norfolk, in anuments.

J. V. Langnorne, author of Sportins Sal," is fast coming to the front both in his writings and publishing. He has several new songs in press that will be welcomed by singers and music buyers.

Charles H. Harris' list of new issues includes "Without Your Love, Oh! Let Me Die!" "Sweet Eileen" and his masterpiece of lyric and melody, "One Night in June."

"How'd You Lige to Be the Iceman?" a by-word with nearly every man and boy in New York, is the title of a comic song that is having a good run every-

The Scaboard Band of Portsmouth is fast coming to the front. The management is arranging to soon have fifty pieces and all the popular marches, two steps and band pieces will be used, and no doubt well rendered and appreciated. "I Guess I'll Have to Telegraph My Baby" is fast dying out, but, as the publisher, T. B. Harris, says, it was a 200,000 copy success, they have about "got all that was comin' to them."

Julius P. Witmark, Jimmy Woods, Annie Wilkes, Fern Melrose, Fay Rog-ers, Jeanette Young, Grace Gilmore, Alfred Turner and many other "head-liners" are doing well singing "In the Shenandoah Valley."

A very strong attraction is at the Ocean View Theatre for this week, in the shape of Carlin & Clark's Minstrel Company, whose fine musical and comedy work has brought forth notices of a flattering nature. This company was organized especially for park performances and includes twenty well known minstrel people, comedians and musicians of the first rank.

For the week following there has been engaged as a special feature of great interest Schilzanyl's famous Hungarian floys' Milliary Band—forty boys of tender years, whose musical talent, training and practice have made a marvelous hand, commanding the attention and favorable notice of music-lovers. These boys will play one week, beginning at a Sunday matinee, on July 2d, giving two performances every day, at 2:30 and 8:30 b. m.

The minstrel performances will be at the same hours agery and same hours agery and same hours agery and a same hours agery and same same hours and comfortable hiving room.

we say the old way, but really it is a very common one at the present time and many dyspepties and physicians as well consider the first step to take in attempting to cure indigestion is to die, either by selecting certain food and rejecting others, or to greatly diminish the quantity usually taken, in other words, the starvation plan is supposed by many to be the first essential.

The almost certain failure of the starvation cure has been proven time and again, but still the moment dyspepsia makes its appearance a course of delting is at once advised.

All this is radically wrong, it is foolish and unscientifie to recommend deting to a man suffering from dyspepsia, because indigestion itself starves every organ, every nerve and every fibre in the body.

What the dyspeptic wants is abundant murition, which means pienty of good, wholesome well cooked food, and something to assist the weak stomach to digest it. This is exactly the purpose for which Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are adapted and this is the method by which they cure the worst cases of dyspepsia, in other words the patient eats plenty of wholesome food and Stuart's Dyspepsia. Tablets algests it for him. In this way the system is nourished and the overworked stomach rested, because the tablets will digest the food whether the stomach works or not. One of these tablets will digest the rost of the purest and safest remedy for stomach troubles and every trial makes one more friend for this excellent preparation.
